Tabora Gardens Senior Apartments is the new construction of an 85 unit affordable housing community in Antioch for people aged 55 and above. The site is a vacant, 3.15 acre site in the shape of a right triangle. Along the legs of the triangle, SAHA will construct a 2 to 3 story, 85 unit building in an L configuration. The two buildings will be connected by a bridge containing enclosed corridors on the second and third floors. The main entrance of Tabora Gardens will be an inviting atrium located at this area where the two buildings connect. The adjacent first floor area will also contain the majority of the common uses such as the manager and services offices, the main community room and the smaller activity room and computer room. The community room will open to the expansive central garden which will include a meandering path, a boardwalk, several seating areas, a meditation area and wheelchair accessible vegetable planters in a sunny spot. Tabora Gardens will include 84 one-bedroom units for people with incomes at or below 50% of the area median, and one two-bedroom apartment for the onsite resident manager. Five homes at Tabora Gardens will be set aside for people with HIV/AIDS. An additional five homes will be set aside for people with disabilities. 33 units will be set aside for veterans, 12 of which will be formerly chronically homeless.
