Disaster Resources

The ongoing fires in Los Angeles County have devastated homes, schools, libraries, businesses, and entire communities. The State Treasurer's Office is committed to helping affected Californians and their businesses rebuild and recover. From financial assistance and insurance support to disaster recovery services and tax relief, this guide provides essential resources for individuals, families, and businesses impacted by the wildfires.

The descriptions of resources and programs in this guide are intended to provide general information only. This guide is not intended to be an exhaustive listing of resources that may be available to a person or business impacted by the wildfires. Additional resources may be available that better suit individual needs or circumstances. Readers are encouraged to conduct their own research and consult with relevant professionals or agencies to develop a thorough understanding of the scope of available resources and programs, and to determine the most appropriate solutions for their specific situations.

State Treasurer's Office Resources

California Capital Access Program (CalCAP) Supplemental Severely Affected Community (SAC) Contribution:

The credit enhancements for loans enrolled in CalCAP are eligible for supplemental contributions for borrowers whose businesses and properties are located in a SAC.

<https://www.treasurer.ca.gov/cpcf/calcap/index.asp>

Sales and Use Tax Exclusion Program (STE):

Application fees will be waived, and applicants may receive 50 points in the STE application competitive criteria if the project is to relocate or rebuild the applicant's facility due to wildfires.

<https://www.treasurer.ca.gov/caeatfa/ste/index.asp>

Time Deposit Program:

Allows the State Treasurer's Office to make deposits with eligible California financial institutions, providing a stable source of funding while stimulating local economic growth through small businesses loans, home mortgages, and other lending. Affected banks should contact the STO Investments Division for more information.
