(Youth who are not able to read and understand the statements below should have their adult primary caregiver fill it out. That could be a parent, foster parent, guardian, Indian custodian or other adult who is primarily responsible for the care and wellbeing of the youth.)

- I understand that my enrollment in the HOPE Trust Account for Children Program means I have an account in my name that will receive an annual deposit of money until I reach 18 years old. []
- I understand that I can withdraw the money in my HOPE Account only once, for the entire amount, at any time beginning on my 18th birthday until the day before my 27th birthday. Once I turn 27, I will not be able to withdraw from my HOPE Account. []
- I understand that to receive the withdrawal from my HOPE Account, I must have a checking, savings, or prepaid card account at a bank or credit union that is in my name only and [] that only I own and manage. (The only exception is if I am legally unable to own and manage my own account and someone has been appointed by a court to manage one for me on my behalf.)

- I understand that I will be offered free financial education and money management training that I can use until I am 30 years old to support money management and achieving financial goals. []
- I understand that the money in my HOPE Account is meant for my use, my future, and that only I can decide how to use the money. I understand that no one has the right to require me to use the money in my HOPE Account in any way. []
- I understand that I am not required to tell anyone that I have a HOPE Account if I don't want to. []
- I understand that I can see how much money is in my HOPE Account by logging on to the HOPE Account Portal at www._____. []
- I have the right to receive excellent customer service to answer any questions I have about my HOPE Account. I understand I can ask for help in several ways including by calling ____, by sending an email to ____, or by clicking "XXX" on the HOPE Account Portal. []
- For foster youth only: I understand that if I am adopted or enter guardianship before I turn 18, I will stop receiving annual deposits to my HOPE Account 12 months after that happens. However, if I return to foster care, I will begin receiving annual deposits immediately. []

Acknowledgment of Enrollment
